SIGNALS USED IN CASE CITATIONS

□ indicates that the case is cited for a square holding, although factually distinguishable, directly upholds the holding, although not stating, the opinion or conclusion consistent with the proposition stated but which may involve facts or not factually distinguishable, which directly opposes the proposition stated upon the proposition stated. □ by analogy suggests a result contrary to the proposition stated. These three signals indicate supplementary material which does not directly uphold the proposition stated.

Citations following citations

□ was not necessary to the determination of the case. □ if the case is not clear.
